

PHILANTHROPY NOTES

FALL 2012

A quarterly e-Newsletter from the Friends of Mercy Foundation

The Catherine McAuley Society, a women's philanthropic group gathered earlier this week for their first meeting of the 2012/2013 year and celebrated this year's membership of 136.

The luncheon took place in the Mercy Pavilion, which is currently part of Mercy's New Century Campaign; a capital campaign being conducted by the Friends of Mercy Foundation to raise $1,000,000 toward renovation and construction projects at Mercy Downtown and Mercy Southwest. The setting for the luncheon was adjacent to the new Pavilion garden, which was donated by Elizabeth Pankey.

For more information or to become a member of the Catherine McAuley Society, please contact us at (661) 663-6700 or at www.supportfriendsofmercy.org.

Grateful Hearts is a new program from the Friends of Mercy Foundation that allows patients to recognize caregivers.

Grateful Hearts recipients receive a special pin and plaque to commemorate this special honor.

For more information about the program, please visit our website at www.supportfriendsofmercy.org

Happy Thanksgiving to our Mercy Family, which includes Mercy employees, board members, volunteers & donors.

- Stephanie, Misty, Erica & Jennifer

Today is Philanthropy Day!

November 15th is National Philanthropy Day. Philanthropy is defined as the love of mankind and the practice of performing benevolent actions.
